

The Month of Photography, Tokyo 2026

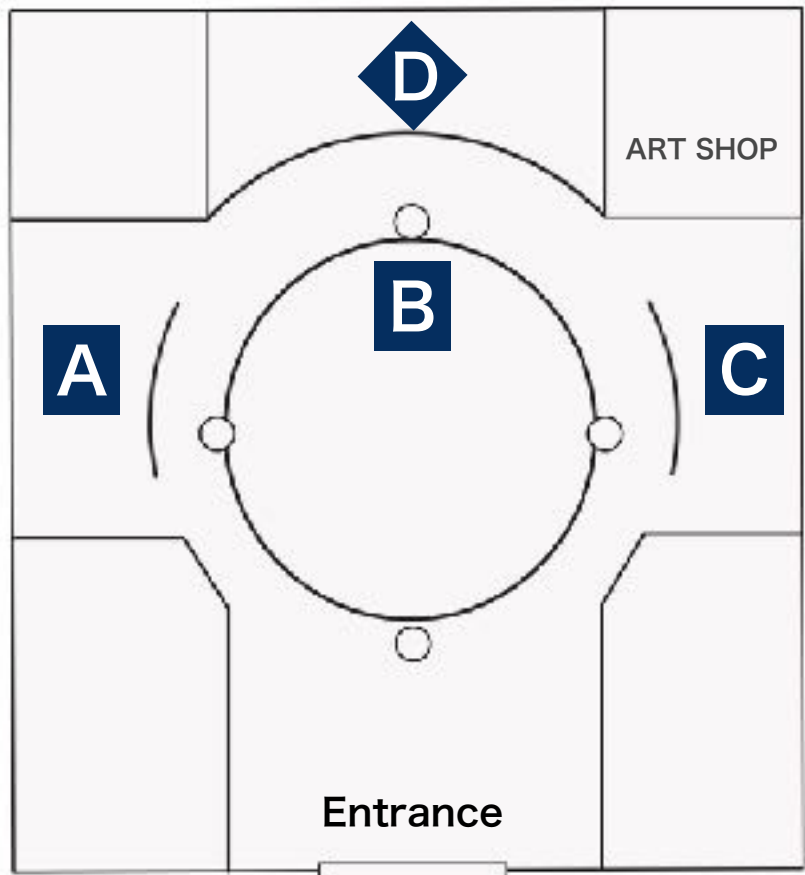

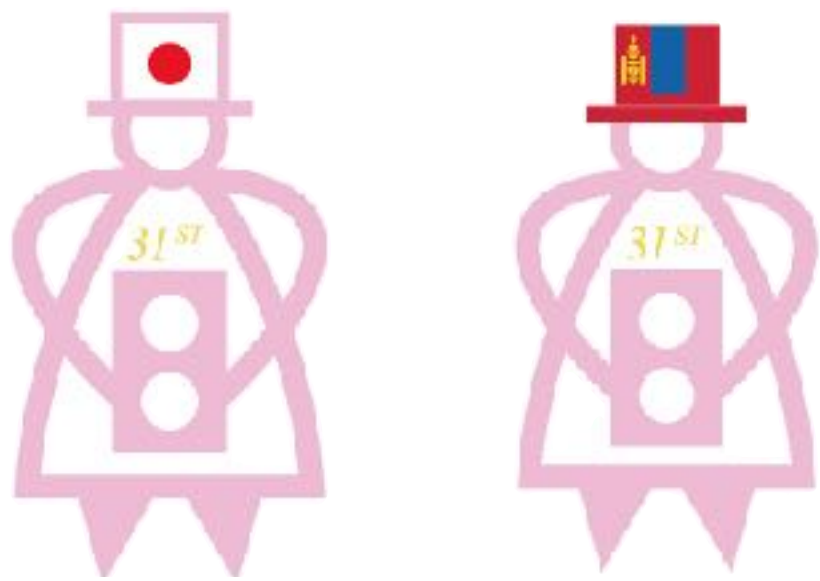

Traveling Photography Exhibition

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

This exhibition is part of The Month of Photography, Tokyo 2026 traveling exhibition program. It brings together award-winning works selected from entries submitted by photographers ranging from passionate enthusiasts to professionals, united by a shared spirit of inspiring and connecting through photography. It also features works by professional photographers from both Japan and Mongolia, all of whom are members of the Photographic Society of Japan(PSJ). Through photography, we hope to share diverse perspectives on our world and its people, contributing to cultural exchange and mutual understanding between Japan and Mongolia.

Tottori Prefecture, Japan, and Central Province, Mongolia, have deepened their cultural exchange since their 1997 agreement on friendship and exchange. This exhibition showcases this continuing exchange through Tottori's traditional Inshu Washi, a handmade paper known for its beautiful texture, strength, and durability, with a history of more than 1,000 years.
